IMMIGRATION. - We had an interview yesterday with Major Robertson who has just returned from Europe, whither he went in the interests of the Virginia Immigration Society. He was greatly encouraged by what he saw and learned while there. He thinks the South can get all the immigrants it wants by a proper course. He believes he could have forwarded were prepared to receive them, and could not rent lands and start themselves in business. Among these he thinks there will be considerable emigration. The feeling in favor of emigrating to the South is strong. Its advantages in agricultural, mineral and manufacturing respects are beginning to be well understood.—

He is of the orinion that within a few months He is of the orinion that within a few months there will be a material accession made to our Theological Seminary and Alexandria. The population from England and Scotland of men of a few thousand dollars each, who will come to seek their homes and fortunes among us.

Of laborers any number could be had if any guarantee of employment on arriving here could be furnished. They cannot afford to come and lie idle, but must go to work at once. If the farmers of the various counties would hold meetings and pledge themselves to take so many each at certain wages, and forward those pledges to the Immigration Society, the matter could be easily managed. And in addition, if they would severally bind themselves to rent or sell a given number of acres of land at low prices to this new population, that would induce many to come. And surely our so all tenements thereon. landholders could do nothing more promotive of their own interests than such a course would | Wythe streets. be. What we most want is the immigration of thrifty hard-working people, to till our idle lands, and cause the waste places to blossom and bear the fruits of the earth. - Lynchburg thirty or forty thousand to Virginia while bearing; a market garden, grapes, shrubbery, forest and ornamental trees, and a never failing well of excellent water. The junction station of the Washington and Alexandria with the were prepared to receive them, and could not conscientiously advise them to come.

The only class whom he encouraged to come were men of sufficient means to purchase or rent lands and start themselves in business.—

The wasnington and Alexandria, with the Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, is within a few minutes walk. The scenery and view are of unsurpassed beauty, and the surroundings unexceptionable.

2. THIRTY-EIGHT ACRES of fine meadow land, about fifty yards from the junction, and 100 from the Canal-separated from No. 1 by the Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad. This is excellent land for grain and hay, and for market gardening.

3. TWENTY-FIVE ACRES on the old view from this situation is beautiful and extensive, and the neighborhood very agreeable.

The above property will be shown by the family residing at Warwick.

Also, the following lots in Alexandria:

ONE ACRE, adjoining the Loudoun and Hampshire depot, bounded by Pendleton, Fairfax and Water streets. ONE ACRE, on the south side of Madison street, extending from Fairfax to Royal st.

ONE ACRE, on the south side of Montgomery street, a few yards from the Canal Basin, and extending from Washington to St. Asaph street. A part of this lot is occupied by the Washington and Alexandria Railroad. A lot on the south side of Queen street, between Patrick and Alfred streets, about 20 feet front, and 100 deep, to a 15 feet alley, with two
